USE OF APOSTROPHE (`S)

Some important points about the use of apostrophe('S)

(I) An apostrophe is always used with possessive case (to denote ownership, possession, origin etc)

Ex:

(a) The dramas of Shakespeare are very interesting.

(b) Shakespeare's dramas are very interesting.

NOTE:

(a) Ram's uncle's friend. (W)

(b) Friend of Ram's uncle.(C)

(2) When the noun is singular, the possessive case is formed by adding 'S to the noun

Ex:

(a) The boy's bag was missing.

(3) When the noun has a hissing sound, the possessive case is formed by adding only an apostrophe, and not 'S to the noun.

Ex:

(a) The boys's books.

(b) The boys' books.

(4) When a noun consists of several words(compound noun), apostrophe sign or the possessive sign is added to the last word.

Ex:

(a) The government of India's policy.

(b) The government's of India policy.

(5) If pronouns like somebody, anybody, everyone, something etc are followed by "else",apostrophe 's' ('s) is use with else.

Ex:

(a) Somebody's purse has been stolen.

(b) Somebody's else purse has been stolen.

(c) Somebody else's purse has been stolen.

(6) Two or more nouns joined by "and" implying separate possession must take separate possessive sign or apostrophe
